

Russian Goods Statement 2025

This statement is made by Trent Instruments Ltd with regards to Russian Goods.

This is to certify that the products supplied by Trent Instruments Ltd are not of Russian origin.

The Company has thoroughly examined the sourcing and manufacturing processes of the products provided by Trent Instruments Ltd, and we can confirm that they do not contain materials or components of Russian origin. The products supplied by Trent Instruments Ltd adhere to our strict quality and origin standards.

This certificate is issued based on our knowledge and investigations conducted up to 30.07.2025 and we affirm that the products supplied by Trent Instruments Ltd meet the criteria of non-Russian origin as stipulated by our company.

Should you require any additional information or documentation regarding the origin of the products supplied by Trent Instruments Ltd, please do not hesitate to contact us.

This statement will be reviewed annually unless circumstances dictate it should be reviewed more frequently. The last review of this policy was on 30.07.2025.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Mark Buckley', written in a cursive style.

Mark Buckley
Managing Director